

CONFIDENTIAL INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY

COSTA RICA PREMIER JUNGLE DEVELOPMENT

INVITATION ONLY - LIMITED ACCESS

INVESTOR NOTICE: This opportunity is being presented to a select group of qualified investors.

Our internal review indicates very limited availability of large, contiguous parcels in this corridor-particularly those with practical access to Jacó.

THE OPPORTUNITY

A convergence of access, natural appeal, and steady tourism growth has created a compelling opportunity in Costa Rica's Central Pacific. This 80-acre rainforest parcel sits within easy reach of Jacó-one of the country's most active visitor hubs-and aligns with a global eco-tourism sector projected to reach about $552 billion by 2035 (Future Market Insights, 2025).

THE NUMBERS THAT MATTER

Property Value Trajectory:

- National air arrivals: 2.66M in 2024 (16-year high; ICT)
- Jacó STR metrics (AirDNA): ~40% occupancy; ~$318 ADR; ~$27.5K annual revenue
- Property tax (IBI): ~0.25% annually, nationally applied baseline
- FDI inflows: ~US$4.32B in 2024 (record; PROCOMER citing BCCR)

WHAT SOPHISTICATED CAPITAL LOOKS FOR

Institutional hospitality groups and experienced developers are active along the Central and North Pacific. Investment theses commonly center on sustained visitation, improving infrastructure links to SJO, and rule-of-law stability. Parcels that combine access, views, and environmental appeal-while allowing phased development-tend to command the most attention.

MARKET DYNAMICS & SUPPLY CONSTRAINTS

- Limited inventory of undeveloped properties >50 acres within ~30 minutes of Jacó.
- Shorter hold times for comparable land assets suggest firming demand.
- Beach-hotel demand remains healthy; early-2024 projections suggested high-60s nationwide occupancy (industry reporting).

PROPERTY INTELLIGENCE

Strategic Positioning

- 324,000 m2 (80 acres) - ~1,200 ft elevation - 360° panoramic exposure
- ~20-30 minutes to Jacó Beach - ~90-120 minutes to SJO (traffic dependent)

Market Dynamics

- National air arrivals: 2.66M in 2024 (ICT; 16-year high)
- Short-term rentals (Jacó): ~40% occupancy; ~$318 ADR; ~$27.5K annual revenue (AirDNA)
- Hotel demand context: beach hotels projected high-70s occupancy in peak periods (industry reports)
- Property tax baseline (IBI): ~0.25% annually (national)

Local Context & Amenities

- Rancho Shadday (mountaintop soda): rating ~4.7; wood-fire kitchen; sweeping Pacific/jungle views
- Bar y Restaurante El Tajo: rating ~4.8; lively local spot minutes away
- Jacó Walk open-air plaza: dining, shops, frequent community events
- Nearby natural draws: Tárcoles "Crocodile Bridge" overlook; Bijagual Waterfall (~600 ft)

INVESTMENT THESIS

Three-Pillar Value Creation

PILLAR 1: APPRECIATION PLAY

Land banking in a supply-constrained corridor with strengthening demand. Appreciation driven by proximity to Jacó, access improvements, and the scarcity of large, contiguous parcels.

PILLAR 2: CASH FLOW GENERATION

Pilot eco-accommodations can generate meaningful near-term cash flow while master planning longer-term development. Performance depends on unit count, ADR, seasonality and occupancy; see pro-forma in data room.

PILLAR 3: DEVELOPMENT UPSIDE

Multiple exit strategies including boutique eco-resort, low-density residential, or strategic sale/JV with a hospitality brand. Final density subject to zoning, environmental approvals, and engineering.

RISK ASSESSMENT

Primary Risk Factors & Mitigation

- Currency: USD widely used in real estate/tourism, moderating local FX exposure.
- Political: Stable democracy with long-standing peaceful transitions.
- Market: Diversified source markets (US/Canada/Europe) smooth seasonality risk.
- Liquidity: Deepening international buyer pool; established brokerage networks.
- Zoning/Utilities: Confirm via Plan Regulador and service providers; phase scope to align with approvals and infrastructure.

5. Closing with established Costa Rica legal counsel

Expected Timeline: 45-60 days from Letter of Intent to closing

INVESTMENT SUMMARY

This 80-acre rainforest property represents more than real estate—it's a position in Costa Rica's Central Pacific growth story. With established tourism infrastructure, rule-of-law stability, and limited supply of large parcels near Jacó, investors can pursue both income and appreciation with multiple exit paths.

We invite aligned partners to review the data room, walk the site, and assess a phased plan that fits disciplined underwriting.
